Bombs, Fireworks Set Mood For Symphony

Exploding bombs and fireworks will highlight the last performance of the Symphonic Band, which will be given at 7:30 Wednesday in University Plaza (south lawn) of the Practical Arts Bldg. The fireworks will be the finale of "Overture 1812" by Tchaikowsky.

Tchaikowsky wrote the overture in 1880 in commemoration of the Russian victory over Napoleon in 1812. It was written to be played in conjunction with cannon fire, fireworks, and church bells, said Roy J. Weger, director of symphonic band. The Bowling Green Police Department will be in charge of the display and the exploding bombs.

Weger and David S. Glasmire, assistant director, will direct the program composed of Poet and Peasant Overture by Von Suppe, Purple Pageant March by K. L. King, American Salute by Morton Gould, Irish Tune from County Derry by Percy Grainger, Lady of Spain by Tolchard Evans; and Sempe Fidelis March by John Philip Sousa.

"Estilian Caprice" by Gene Paul will feature the band and soloist William Saul on alto sax. "Two Pair of Slippers" by Putman will be played by the band and a trombone quartet composed of Verne Collins, Gene Bernath, Ray Huffman, and Maxine Boger.

IFC To Elect, Revises Rules

Interfraternity Council will elect officers for the first semester of 1955-56 tomorrow evening at its regularly scheduled meeting.

A complete revision has been made regarding rushing rules for next semester. The new rules consider that upperclass Greeks will be living in Rodgers Quadrangle with rushees and several of the restrictions on casual meetings have been changed and are more liberal for both groups.

It was also announced that if fraternity pledges deplored before the end of the present semester, their point averages would be included in the aggregate point averages of their groups.

Inspecting Unit To Rate BG Army Corps Friday

The Army ROTC unit will have its annual federal inspection Friday, May 13, announced Col. Thomas R. Malone Jr.

"A four-man Second Army inspection team consisting of Col. George M. Griswold, University of Delaware; Lt. Col. Stephan A. Ucherek, LaSalle College; Lt. Col. Floyd K. Long, Temple University; and CWO Robert Hauser, Lafayette College, will rate the over-all efficiency of the unit," said Colonel Malone.

The inspection team will observe an honor guard composed of freshman cadets at the Graphic Arts Bldg., at 8 a.m. The cadets, who will be armed with M-1 rifles, will be commanded by Eugene France and John Buckles.

Following the honor guard the inspection team will question cadets in various classes, observe instruction techniques, and examine the ROTC records. Pres. Ralph W. McDonald will entertain the inspecting officers at an official luncheon at noon.

President McDonald and the inspecting officers will review the entire corps of cadets at 1:15 p.m. on the varsity baseball field. The cadets will be inspected by the officers immediately following the review.

Colonel Malone said he "expected this year's annual inspection to be as excellent as in previous years." He added "the unit has always received a very high rating."

Blood Bank Quota Set At 150 Pints

The second Blood Bank of the semester will be held from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Wednesday in the recreation hall. The quota has been set at 150 pints, said Larry Pete, chairman of the Alpha Phi Omega Blood Bank committee.

Frosh Applying Up Six Per Cent

Freshman enrollment for the coming fall semester is up about six per cent over the same period in the last four years, Ralph H. Geer, director of admissions stated.

In any one of the four previous years, freshman enrollment was over 1,000.

Mr. Geer said that even though new University rulings regarding entrance have been put into effect, all indications point to the fact that this may be a record fall.

A $10 room deposit in advance and submission of a health examination with the application for entrance were expected to slow down the number of prospective enrollees.

Prexy Picks Seven Panhel Committees

Elaine Karney, Panhellenic president has announced committees to study various functions of the Council this spring and to present plans and revisions for 1955-56.

The various committees and respective chairmen are Janet Kohler, Women's Handbook material; Shirley Grimes, upper-class fall rushing; Arlene Daugherty, party schedules; Andrea Robbins, Panhellenic Tea; Diane Johnson, orientation programs; Marlene Martin, planning rush system; and Sally Murphy, possible revisions.

Two SICSIC's Disclosed Today, News Poll Picks 11 Possibilities

Who are the two senior members of SICSIC?

Last week the B-G News sent a reporter around campus with this question in mind. More than 80 students and 3 faculty members were asked to give their opinions as to who the two members are.

The senior members of SICSIC are going to be revealed at a special assembly at 4 p.m. this afternoon, in the main auditorium. Following the presentation, distribution of the Key to the students will begin in the University Elementary School gym.

Roger Kasten led the poll with more than 60 people selecting him as one of the members. The next choice was Donald Percy with 35, and following close behind were Sam Martin and Donald Packard with 21 votes each.

Other men mentioned in the poll were Phil Bertman, Jack Dewan, Gerald Murray, Richard Humphrey, Ed Haller, John Cold, William Melvin and Hal Van Tassel.

SICSIC is the men's anonymous booster organization. It was formed in 1946 to boost school spirit. At the end of the school year, usually on Honors Day, the two senior members are revealed and presented with the SICSIC trophy. Two men who are completing their freshman year are tapped to fill the gap. The two men are chosen because they have been outstanding their first year.

Many of those polled named Dr. Ralph W. McDonald as one of the members as this is his fourth year as President of the University.

Several of the people polled did not know what SICSIC was, while others couldn't name any seniors.

Summer Job Opening In BG Firm: McKay

An opening with a firm in Bowling Green exists for a student seeking off-campus employment, Robert E. McKay, financial aids counselor stated.

McKay said this position is now open and the student who meets the specified qualifications will have the opportunity to work for the summer. He suggests that anyone interested in this job should see him in his office, 208 Administration Bldg.

May Sing, Court Combined; Gala Presentation Sunday

The twelfth annual Association of Women Students May Sing will be held May 15 at 7 p.m. in the main auditorium. This year, the May Court and May Day ceremonies will be combined with the May Sing.

The queen and her court will be presented after the final group sings and before the judges announce the winners of the song competition. Don Percy will be the master of ceremonies. Sally Moran is chairman of May Court.

Four Attendants

The four attendants will walk slowly down the aisle to the stage accompanied by the presidents of their classes. Darrell Askey will serenade the four attendants. Then the queen will enter the auditorium. On stage, Theta Chi fraternity, winners of the Interfraternity Song Fest, will serenade the queen.

Original Song

Entries are still being accepted for the original song contest. Rules for the contest are (1) The song must be composed by a woman student in the University; (2) the song must have definite form, key, rhythm, and accompaniment; (3) a copy must be submitted for each of the three judges; (4) the song may be sung by the composer; (5) vocalist and accompanist may be from a group other than the composer's group, as long as these are women students; (6) a song may be entered again if the composer is still a student and the song has not won a previous contest.

Entries are being accepted by the May Sing chairman, Sue Claflin, at the Chi Omega House, or in Dean Currier's office until May 13. The composer of the prize-winning song will be awarded a $5 prize.

Alpha Xi's Start

First group to start the Sing at 7 p.m. will be Alpha Xi Delta. Following at ten-minute intervals in this order are Ivy Hall and Campus Cottage, Delta Zeta, Chi Omega, Phi Mu, Delta Gamma, Alpha Gamma Delta, Alpha Chi Omega, Alpha Phi, Shatzel Hall, Kappa Delta, Gamma Phi Beta, Alpha Delta Pi, Kohl Hall, and Williams Hall.

Annual Derby Day Features Parade

Sigma Chi will hold its seventh annual Derby Day Saturday, May 14 with a parade beginning at 1:15 p.m. from Fraternity Row.

The parade, led by a show horse ridden by Ralph Vander Vliet, will travel through campus. The parade will go through downtown Bowling Green and end at the University Elementary School at approximately 2 p.m.

The field will be decorated with pennants and bleachers will be constructed for spectators.

Clowns Play

Clowns will mingle with the crowd, passing out lollipops and selling cotton candy. The largest derby hat in this area will be given its position of honor at one end of the field.

On the program are 14 events which are climaxed with a mystery event. The nature of this event will not be disclosed until the day of the derby.

Three trophies will be awarded throughout the day. The first one will be given to the sorority or fraternity showing the greatest spirit. This award will be judged on the spirit shown during the parade and derby.

Trophy Awards

Each event is judged on a points basis and the fraternity and the sorority compiling the most points will each be awarded a trophy.

The head residents from Phi Mu and Phi Delta Theta, last Derby Day winners, will be guests of honor.

This year the contests are tug-of-war; egg-throw; backward-forward race; shower clog race; leap-frog race; balloon blowing contest; egg carry on a teaspoon race; and the mystery event.

45 Models Give Fashion Show

Forty-five University students will model in a summer fashion show sponsored by the Cla-Zel Theatre and ten leading retail merchants of Bowling Green Wednesday at 8:30 p.m. on the Cla-Zel stage.

Theater manager Bill Dennis has announced that three representatives from each of the sororities and 12 members of Delta Upsilon fraternity will model suits, dresses, sportswear, and beachwear.

The fashion show will be presented between showings of the movie "This Is My Love," which begins at 7 p.m. and immediately following the stage program. The movie stars Linda Darnell and Dan Duryea.

Students Schedule '56 Key Pictures

Students who are sophomores and juniors now are reminded to make appointments for next year's Key pictures in the Key office, 119 Administration Bldg. from 2 to 4:30 p.m.

'My Three Angels' Final University Theatre Play

"My Three Angels," the last major University Theatre production, will open at 8:15 p.m. Thursday evening in the main auditorium. The play runs through Saturday night.

F. Lee Miesle, assistant professor of speech, is directing the three-act comedy. Tickets may be obtained in the Gate Theatre box office from 10:30 a.m. to noon and 2 to 4 p.m. and at the box office in the Well before each performance.

"My Three Angels" is a delightful comedy set in the penal colony of Cayenne, French Guiana. While mending a shopkeeper's roof, three convicts, Jules, Joseph, and Alfred, become entangled in the personal lives of the Ducotels, a French colonial shopkeeper and his family.

Solving the family's financial and romantic problems provides the plot of the comedy. By combining St. Nicholas with a little of the old Nick, the convicts manage to give the Ducotels a happy Christmas.

The comedy has several unique features. The three convicts make their first entrance from the ceiling. Props include a live rooster, and a poisonous snake, Adolphe, that's not so alive.

Committee heads for the production include Nancy Looman, props; Carol Bailey, costumes; Sandra Clark and Sally Kilmer, sound; Marlo Snyder, make-up; Don Blake, Kay Nonnamaker, and Keith Lair, lights; and John Tite, stage manager.

In Our Opinion

Get Your Key Today

Even before we see the 1955 Key we have an indication of the efficiency of the staff headed by Editor Patricia Vietmeier. This is the earliest distribution for the yearbook in the four years that we have been on this campus.

Early distribution has its advantages. The 4 o'clock ceremony in the main auditorium this afternoon lends a more official atmosphere to the release of the book. Editor Vietmeier will present the first copy of the book to Pres. Ralph W. McDonald, who will then announce the Key King and Queen, the senior SIC-SIC members, and present these people with copies of the book.

The King and Queen candidates will be back stage. They will not be notified of their winning until Dr. McDonald reads their names from a sealed envelope.

SIC-SIC voiced objection to such an early release of the identity of its senior members, believing that the unveiling would put a damper on their activities for the rest of the year. SIC-SIC, forgive us—but we do want our Key.

First Edition Part Of Exhibit Honoring Whitman Centennial

By PAUL LEEDY
UNIVERSITY LIBRARIAN

In honor of the centennial of the publication of Walt Whitman's "Leaves of Grass" in 1855, the Bowling Green State University Library is currently holding a Whitman Exhibit.

The material on display falls into two classes. The first consists of outstanding Whitman items from the Library's own collection. Foremost is the rare first edition, first issue of "Leaves of Grass." Also included in the exhibit are the important third edition of "Leaves of Grass," "The Calamus Letters," "Specimen Days," the Paumanok edition of "The Complete Writings of Walt Whitman," and a variety of other primary source materials related to Whitman's growth and development as a major literary figure.

Letter From Emerson

The other material on exhibit consists of 53 plaques presenting manuscripts from the renowned Whitman collection of Charles E. Feinberg of Detroit. In this display is the famous 1855 letter from Ralph Waldo Emerson to Whitman, hailing the arrival of a new poet in America. Among the manuscripts represented are fascinating examples of Whitman's method of composition and of his interest in Emerson, Lincoln, Thoreau, Poe, and other contemporaries. Whitman's interest in democracy, the common man, life, and death, and other themes is likewise seen in several of the manuscripts. Of particular interest are manuscript pages of "Good-bye My Fancy," in which Whitman writes of his own approaching death, and "Oh Captain, My Captain," written on the occasion of the death of Lincoln. The manuscript pages from the Feinberg collection, in combination with photographs included, present a graphic overview of Whitman's literary life from the publication of "Leaves of Grass" in 1855 to his own death in 1892.

Open 15 Days

Open until May 22, the Whitman exhibit will be open to students, faculty, townspeople, and out-of-town visitors, every afternoon from 1:30 to 4:30 and Monday through Thursday evenings from 6:30 to 9:30.

Alma Mater Entries Auditioned; Weather Puts Classes Outside

BY GERALD MURRAY

Friday afternoon members of the Alma Mater Contest Committee heard the original compositions selected as outstanding from 21 entries by an anonymous sub-committee.

Chairman of the committee Dean Emerson C. Shuck said that the sub-committee was composed of two music faculty members and three senior music students who were selected for technical judgment of the entries. The groups spent several hours Wednesday evening learning and going over the entries in order to arrive at their recommendations.

The committee came away from the hearing sufficiently enthused over the three recommended songs. If we might be allowed to predict, it is our opinion that should the contest be as well supported in the next four years, Bowling Green will be a singing University with an outstanding selection of original songs.

Of the 21 entrants in the original music and lyrics division, 16 were the compositions of students, four of alumni, and one from a faculty member. Of the eight entries of second verses to the tune of "Finlandia," four were written by students, three by faculty members, and one by an alumnus.

Prof. Merrill C. McEwen is now making the arrangements for a campus choral group to present the final decisions of the committee at the Honors Day ceremonies May 25.

Now that we're celebrating National Hospital Week, it's too bad we don't have any friends in the hospital so we could take advantage of the extended visiting hours.

From the new products section in the Changing Times magazine we noticed these remarkable developments toward luxury—Elastiglass pants to wear over your trousers when it pours to protect the creases . . . glue in a can that you can spray on for mounting photographs, etc . . . and suitcases made of magnesium in six colors which will be lighter than aluminum.

A parliamentary procedure slide rule committee chairmen may refer to for an immediate answer

. . . no-switch lamps in which you touch the lamp base and it goes on or off . . . and phosphorescent rugs that give off a soft glow for several hours after the bedroom light has been extinguished (designed to quiet the fears of the kiddies, but will probably scare them to death) were also on the list.

Warm weather is always causing troubles. The campus police have had to lecture students about speeding on the campus. Classes have been forced out onto the lawn, and novel-reading courses give you that feeling of security, you tan while you study.

The well-dressed man this summer will wear shades of green, so the top tailors have announced. Pink and charcoal shades will continue to be popular. Among the items being shown are charcoal-green silk shantung double-breasted suits, and mint-green silk shantung tuxedos.

REMEMBER—no issue of the paper this Friday.

COMPLAINT DEPT. The cost of a college education is going up, the Changing Times reports—as if we didn't know! Students and their parents had better steel themselves for the shock. By next fall, tuition costs will be raised from the present fee of $800 to $1,000 in a few schools, and other schools are likely to increase their charges proportionately. Tax-supported colleges will also increase their tuition fees, primarily for out-of-state students.

Keys Distributed In Lab School Gym Today

Students may obtain their copies of the 1955 Key in the Lab School gym following the 4 p.m. presentation of the book today in the main auditorium.

Each student must present his ac card and 15 cents. Student teachers presently working off-campus may obtain their copies in the Key office until the end of the school year.

Awards In History Presented May 16

The winner of the fourth annual John Schwarz Memorial Award contest will be announced at the annual history department banquet, May 16.

A $20 prize will be awarded to the writer of the best paper in any field of history.

The entries are judged on the basis of the paper's documentation, literary style and historical accuracy. Judges for the contest are Dr. Robert Twyman, professor of history; Stuart Givens, co-ordinator of student activities; and Fred Robertson, president of Phi

Official Announcements

All students desiring on-campus accommodations for the summer sessions will sign up in the Office of the Dean of Students May 9 through May 13.

The contest is named in honor of the late Dr. John Schwarz, former chairman of the history department who died in 1950. The winner of the 1954 contest was Richard Daley. His paper was based on the Dred Scott Decision.

Patty Berg, Top Pro Golfer, Visits BG Campus May 24

By BILL COOPER

Patty Berg, leading money winner in the women's professional golf ranks in 1954, will be on the University campus May 24 to hold a clinic and play a round of exhibition golf.

Miss Berg, a veteran of 22 years as a pro golfer, is being brought to the University by the women's physical education department. Between her many wins and money finishes on the women's tournament circuit, she conducts these clinics for Wilson Sporting Goods Co. and travels more than 50,000 miles a year.

Will Conduct Clinic

Miss Berg will conduct the clinic in the afternoon and then will play a round on the University golf course. The clinic will consist of fundamentals on how to grip each golf club, how to putt, a demonstration on the use of each club, how to swing properly at a ball, and numerous other demonstrations which will help the average golfer in many ways.

Following the clinic, Miss Berg will tee off in a foursome to exhibit her golfing techniques, which have made her one of the top woman shot-makers on the ladies' golf junket.

Playing with her will be Jim Dyingier and Dick Rodney, number one and two golfers for the Falcon team, and Luann Semler, freshman from Toledo and one of the city's top lady golfers. They will play a nine-hole exhibition which will be open to the public.

Wins Four Tourneys

Miss Berg won four major championships and top money finishes in 14 other events in 1954 on the women's tournament circuit which added up to $16,011, and made the famous redhead from Minneapolis, Minn. the leading money winner.

Already this year she has continued in the winner's circle. Miss Berg chalked up early victories in the 1955 St. Petersburg Open with a 292 and the Augusta Titleholders with a 297—breaking the tournament record by two strokes and her personal low 72 hole score by one stroke.

Turned Pro In 1950

Turning professional in 1940, Miss Berg became one of the original pioneers of women's pro golf. She served as president of the Ladies Professional Golf Association from 1949 to 1953 and today presides as clinic chairman.

Miss Berg first showed her athletic abilities when she was a very young girl, by playing football with neighboring boys. She took care of her part of the game but her folks thought that perhaps there was a more "lady-like" sport than football.

They suggested ice skating and in a short time she was winning prizes in this sport too.

PRESSBOX PORTRAITS

By DICK BUDD

Coach Warren Stellar's baseball squad has finally started clicking. The Falcons really got a load off their chests Saturday and clobbered Marshall College but good. Everyone hit and everyone played ball which was certainly quite evident in the 24-3 score.

The twin victory over Marshall Friday and Saturday gives the squad five straight wins and sets them in third place in the Mid-American Conference. Marshall was responsible for 14 errors in the two-game series.

Our neighbors to the north, Toledo U., didn't fair so well in their game with Western Michigan Saturday. The Broncos did TU more dirt than the Falcons did Marshall, by pounding the Rockets 25-0.

Bowling Green's Tennis squad, under its new coach, "Doc" Miles, has succeeded in snapping its two-year slump. The netters to date have posted 5 wins and 2 losses, which already approaches their combined record for the last two years.

A brief note to winners in the intramural all-campus wrestling tournament. A few of the winners have already received their trophies, but there are some who have not. Trophies may be picked up in the Athletic Office in the Men's Gym.

Baseballers Beat Marshall Twice

Bowling Green's baseball team increased its standing in the Mid-American Conference last weekend with two straight victories, 24-3 and 11-3 over a thunderless squad of Thundering Herd from Marshall College.

Marshall came into town with a last-place label and left Sunday with two more losses to further bury them in the cellar. BG came out of the series with a 6-2 record in the conference and a good chance to keep on Western Michigan's heels for the championship.

Falcons Roll

In Saturday's game everybody hit as the Falcons unloaded with 19 hits to take the score 24-3. It was the BG baseballers' fifth straight win in a skein which started a week ago Saturday when they defeated Kent State University.

Bill Carlson, who played just three innings behind the plate for BG, collected his second four-bagger in as many days. Jerry Schoonover and Fred Hansen also smashed homers.

Marshall's Big Green for the second straight day were rather loose defensively as they committed seven errors. The Falcons capitalized on the errors and made them count in the scorebook.

Doug Webster was the winning pitcher, but needed help from Ivan Gillespie in the seventh. Together, these two gave up only nine hits and were never in serious trouble.

Friday's Game

Friday's game saw the Falcons come up with two big innings. A four-run outburst in both the fourth and fifth put the Stellar-men in good shape. They went on to win the game 11-3, as Fred Price went all the way, giving up only seven hits. In the fourth frame, Dick Kenny and Bill Carlson hit home runs for the Falcons.

Marshall committed seven of the game's nine errors and looked very green, especially in the outfield. Wayne Schake collected three bingles and Willie Minarek two doubles to round out the BG hitting attack.

Once again Bowling Green has sponsored the successful Bee Gee Relays, dominated this year by Central Michigan. Probably it's a mistake to say the relays were dominated by Central Michigan. The whole thing could be clarified by saying that Jim Podoley, with the aid of Central Michigan, won the Bee Gee Relays.

Podoley participated in five events for the Chips as the Michigan squad dominated the field with six firsts, three seconds, and one third in the class A division.

Miss Patty Berg, the "dean of women's golf" will be on the Bowling Green campus Wednesday, March 25, as a guest of the women's physical education department. Miss Berg will conduct a golf clinic for women students.

Kent State University's entry in the National Collegiate Bowling Tournament finished fourth in the tournament held last week in Seattle, Washington. Twenty-eight colleges and universities throughout the country were entered.

With only two more appearances remaining for this column, next week we will summarize the year of sports at Bowling Green, how it has compared with past records, and how we feel it will compare with next season.

PATTY BERG

Lettermen Give Campus Dance

Varsity Club will present its first annual all-campus dance Saturday May 14 from 9-12 p.m., on the tennis courts, according to Jerry Sullivan, president.

At intermission, Sullivan will crown this year's, "Miss Varsity." She has been chosen by members of the Varsity Club. All members of the club had an opportunity to enter contestants for the honor.

The theme of the dance is, "Varsity Rhythm's Dance." Decorations will follow along the pattern of sports. Colored lights will hang over-head, and sports figurines will outline the courts. Sullivan said that in the event of rain the dance will be held in the Men's Gym.

Music will be supplied by Ray Thomas and his Kampus Kats. Co-chairmen of the dance are Sullivan and Tom Kisselle.

FRATERNITY RELAYS

Pi Kappa Alpha took both the 440 and 880 relays in the fraternity side of the relays. The Pikes 440 team, composed of Don Kehr, Ralph Jones, Dick Rytel, and Bud Bristow, defeated the Delts who nosed out the Phi Delts.

In the 880, the Pikes had Kehr, Rytel, Bristow, and Gary DeWalt running to the victory.

Central Michigan Dominates Fifth Annual BG Relays

Central Michigan, led by decathlon star Jim Podoley, dominated the 5th annual Bee Gee Relays held Saturday night in the stadium. The Hurons walked off with first place in six Class A relays and took second in three others, with Podoley competing in five of the events. Baldwin-Wallace won three firsts and the remaining two went to Bowling Green.

There were six new records established despite a track made slightly heavy by afternoon rains. Two of the records were established in Class A and four in Class B. Denison and Heidelberg both took three firsts in Class B with two of the records going to Denison.

Falcons Win Two Events

The Falcons two firsts were in the discus and the pole vault. Jack Hecker, Jay England, and Fred Koch had a combined total of 356' 8 1/2" to take the discus event. The pole vault team of Jerry Webb, Bill Bradshaw, and Steve Mahoney went a total of 32' to win that event.

The first race of the night produced the first record as Oberlin won the Class B two-mile relay in 8:07.5, breaking the old record by 14 seconds. In the Class A two-mile Central Michigan edged BG in one of the best races of the evening with a fine time of 8:03.4.

Class A records were established by Baldwin-Wallace in the 440 and sprint medley relays. BW ran a 42.3 in the 440 to edge Central Michigan and BG in a close race. The old record was 43.2, set last year by Central Michigan. In the sprint medley BW had little competition but still ran hard enough to lower Michigan Normal's 3:33.5 record to 3:32.7.

Oberlin Sets Mark

Class B marks set besides Oberlin were by Denison in the shot and discus, and Central State in the high jump. Denison's group of weight men had combined totals of 413' 11" and 134' 11". Both were better than the Class A efforts and were far beyond the old records. Central States three high jumpers went 17' 10" to better Beloit's record by one inch.

HEY DROODLE BUGS! HERE'S ANOTHER BATCH!

WHAT'S THIS? For solution see paragraph below.

YOU GET A GOOD CLOSE-UP of college smokers' preference for Luckies in the Droodle at right, captioned: Lucky Strike column in a college cigarette-vending machine. On campuses all over America, college students automatically get Luckies. Why? Simply because Luckies taste better. They taste better, first of all, because Lucky Strike means fine tobacco. Then that tobacco is toasted to taste better. "It's Toasted"—the famous Lucky Strike process—tones up Luckies' good-tasting tobacco to make it taste even better...

cleaner, fresher, smoother. Next time it's light-up time, why don't you pull for Luckies?

COLLEGE SMOKERS PREFER LUCKIES!

Luckies lead all other brands in colleges—and by a wide margin—according to an exhaustive, coast-to-coast college survey. The No. 1 reason: Luckies taste better.
